January 26, 2016 Update

I don't know about you, but I for one am pretty sick of cold gloomy weather. I am ready for something pretty and springy. My whole gloomy attitude changed the day I opened this box from Moda and saw this gorgeous collection-Colette from Moda. It's a beautiful flowery happy fabric. Terri liked it so much she got some to sew up a quilt for her soon to be- new baby granddaughter. We should have it on display soon.

Here are more yummy spring colors in these super soft flannels.

At Market I picked up this cute little booklet that has 3 springtime projects. Sandy and I worked on this little flower quilt. Soon Carole will have a cute little bunny done for you to see.

We just recently re-stocked our Moda Marbles. Those shelves are full of such colorful eye candy that I just love to look at them.

One of the hottest new patterns on the market right now is this Fold'n Stitch Wreath. I grabbed up some of our new batiks from Hoffman to make one. We also stock the Bosal foam that is the interfacing.

Karen will start cutting kits for her Crazy for Tea Pots quilt so if you have been procrastinating you had better call us right away and get signed up. Cost is $5.50 per month for 12 months. She also took the center and did the cutest little embroidery block.

Oh my Gosh I LOVE this yummy Noro Silk Garden yarn. It feels a bit stiff at first, but the more you work with it the softer it gets. I made a crochet hat with a pattern from the Noro Magazine and it worked up so beautifully that I just love it.

Check out this scrumptious yarn- Moonshine from Jupiter Moon. It's a combination of alpaca wool and silk. Im thinking maybe a sweater is in my future???

Upcoming classes

Ruth will teach you how to quilt on your domestic machine on Sat Feb 13th.

Tammy will show you how to make a cute crocodile stitch flower hat that uses 2 hooks on Saturday Jan 30th

Don't forget to get signed up for Tammy's crochet sleeveless sweater class on Feb 24th
