December 15, 2014 Update

Wow I just looked on the calendar and realized we only have a few more days until Christmas. Ok not quite time to panic, but its getting close. If you're looking for something for a quilter we have a nice display of great gifts to choose from. If Santa can't make up his mind we have gift certificates that will fit any quilters need.

One of my least favorite things to do is make a label for the back of my quilt. Some people can turn a label into a work of art with a story to tell about the making of the quilt. Not me...I'm kind of lazy when I get to that step so a lot of times I grab a micron pen and sign and date the back of the quilt. However I may change my technique now that we have all these wonderful pre printed labels to choose from. Now at least when I sign and date my quilt it will be on a pretty label. I'm curious- just what do you all put on your quilt labels? Email me your answers and I will put those suggestions in a future newsletter.

Every time we get in a wonderful large print I grab up my favorite pattern - Variations on a Theme and whip up this fun easy quilt. So here it is done up in this new bright floral fabric from Hoffman. We have kits available.

This wonderful quilt- Zip Line was designed by our own celebrity quilter Debbie Johnson and uses 2 1/2" strips of batiks. We have several bali pops in your favorite colorway to choose from.

Here is a great pattern from Cozy Quilts called Prickly Pear that Sandi sewed up using Castlewood from Moda. We have kits all ready for you.

Holiday Closings
We will be closed Dec 24th, 25th, and also Jan 1st.

I had the coolest thing happen to me the other day. I was in the drive through at McDonald's and was preparing to pay for my meal and also for the lady behind me just because its fun to watch their reaction. I got up to the window and the girl at the window said Merry Christmas- the lady in front of you paid for your meal. Wow here I was going to do something for somebody else and I got the surprise gift. Now that's really the spirit of Christmas- doing random acts of kindness. I hope you can do something fun for a stranger just because. Hope you all have a wonderful time this Christmas season. ~Lisa
