February 9, 2015 Update

We had an exciting morning last Friday. We finally got our sign!!! WooHoo!!! First- Shawn's Signs pulled in with 2 monster "K-State" colored trucks. Next thing we knew our sign was swinging through the air on its way to its new home. About an hour later a lady came flying in and said "I saw your sign from out on Central...I didn't know you moved!" Also we have had other people that say they had a hard time finding us. Well--- HERE'S YER SIGN!

We have just a few spots left for our bus tour. Don't miss out—seats are going fast!

February 9, 2015 Update

This week we received a wonderful line of fabric from Moda called Passport. I would love to make a bag or pillows or a quilt with it. The pieces include different city street maps. I recognized Paris because the Eiffel tower was there, but help me out here...I didn't know the other ones. Also included are some architectural drawings of buildings and a beautiful world map. I'm thinking some of these fabrics NEED to go home with me.

For the yarn-aholics out there... (yes, fabric people, they are as bad as we are)
We have the perfect yarn to work into a project for your favorite sports fan, or college bound child. These colors are perfect for KU, Chiefs, K-State, and WSU.

Good Earth Adorn is a cotton and linen blend that is perfect for summer projects.

Kenzington is a Merino wool, nylon, alpaca, and silk blend. The colors are beautiful and the yarn is so soft.

Bamboo Pop is a 50-50 cotton bamboo blend. These colors are almost good enough to eat!

Have a great week and I want to wish you all a happy Valentines Day on Saturday.
