FABRICS CLASSES NOTIONS STENCILS BOOKS PATTERNS

March 2, 2015 Update

The last 2 retreat weekends have been fun filled at Camp Mennoscah. I believe it is the most beautiful place in the world if you love being out in the country on a snowy weekend. With lots of food and laughs and good friends it was the perfect place to be. Besides all the comradery I actually got some things done including some UFO's.

This scrappy purse was one of the projects I finished. It's the first time I have done these kinds of handles. Jackie Clark likes to hand stitch so she sewed them on for me.

Another retreat project that I finished was this adorable little quilt from Under the Garden Moon called Tessie. I started it at last year's retreat and finished it this year. Woohoo...another UFO done!

If you need a quick easy wall hanging to celebrate St Patrick's Day this one is a cinch. Just use Heat and Bond to fuse your pieces, do a zig zag stitch and you're done. We have kits available.

Karen's first Crazy Quilt Piecing class filled up fast so she scheduled a new one on Tue March 24 from 6-8:30 pm. Call us soon to sign up as it fills up fast.

There are also a couple spots left if the Beginning Quilting class on Thur March 5th. Call the store or stop in for more details.

While I was gone the new Downton Abby Egyptian fabric showed up. Terry did a fabulous display. I love these colors. Andover designed this fabric to commemorate the 5th Earl of Carnarvon, who was one of the owners of Highclere Castle (where Downton Abbey is filmed) and had a passion for Egyptian artifacts. He and his partner Howard Carter discovered Tutankhamen's tomb.

And for all the yarn addicts out there we got in the most unbelievably beautiful Whisper Lace yarn. I SO WANT to get busy and make something with this!

Also new this week is the Poems Sock yarn. All I can say is YUMMM!

My daughter Donna knitted up these socks with the Trekking self striping yarn. We have several different colors of this wonderful yarn.

Well it was a very productive retreat and I have scheduled next year's dates. They are Feb 18-21 and Feb 25-28, 2016. Put it on your calendar now and we will keep you posted when we will start taking reservations. Have a happy sewing week. ~Lisa
