April 13, 2015 Update

Finally I think spring has arrived. We have had a wonderful rain shower and all the tulips and trees are blooming. I have a gorgeous crabapple tree in my back yard that is in full bloom and is absolutely breathtaking right now. I am really having a hard time passing up garden centers. I am pretty sure my truck has a homing beacon on it that zeros in on plants! I made a trip to Lowes the other day to get a board and something shiny happened in the gardening section and I wound up with a cart full of plants. Mind you that the plants are at the opposite side of the store from the boards!

Speaking of plants and beautiful trees we just got in the cutest fabric from Art Gallery called Cheri. It has a fabric with little flower covered trees on it. All of the coordinates that go with it have such pretty, fresh, spring colors. Terry is working up a model so we hope to have it on display soon.

Sandi has been busy sewing the model for our newest holiday block of the month called Always the Season which features fabric designed by Faye Burgos for Marcus Brothers and the pattern by Vicki Bellino of Bloom Creek. It starts June 1st and it will last for 6 months at a cost of $24.95 per month. Stop in and sign up today.

We have had this Bermuda Sunrise quilt that Jo made in the store for a while, but I finally found a place to hang it. It's a gorgeous quilt to make with batik fat quarters.

We have had several people request kits for these two Kim Diehl small quilts so we now have some cut and ready to purchase.

April 13, 2015 Update

My daughter Donna makes these wonderful fabric bags that are perfect for carrying your knitting or crochet projects or for holding your sewing supplies. We have several here in the store for sale.

Everyone has been so excited about Schoolhouse. Don't forget that it's this Saturday 10-3. We will be demonstrating SQ Angles. It's the easiest way to make 1/2 square triangles - no marking diagonal lines - it's all done for you. Each store will have a different quilt on display, kits to collect for the quilts, demonstrations and a gift basket drawing. All the demo products and fabric kits for our quilts will be 20% off. Get your report card stamped and receive all four quilt patterns when you turn it in at the 4th store. Participating stores are Picket Fence Quilt Co, Hen Feathers, Material Girls, and Charlottes Sew Natural.

These yummy new yarns are from Frog Tree called Ewetopia. I love the way the yarn is twisted in 2 colors. Can you imagine how pretty these would be made up into a shawl or scarf?

These luscious yarns from Island Yarns have fun names like Hot Air Balloon, Grapes of Wrath, Maraschino, and Antilles. With names like that how can you resist? I'm sort of thinking I NEED one of each!

This weekend is going to be a busy one with Schoolhouse. I will need a little treat for myself afterwards so I'm thinking a little trip to my local garden center may be in store. Hmmm fabric, yarn and plants.....it just doesn't get any better than that. Have a great week. ~Lisa
