May 16, 2016 Update

May is such a fun busy month. There are lots of gardens to plant, graduations to attend, school years to wrap up and summer vacations to plan. Our busy-ness seems to slow a bit in June and it's time to sit once again and plan your next stitching project. This year there will be lots of quilting inspiration as the Prairie Quilt Guild has their quilt show at Century II June 16 - 18. I'm always so excited looking forward to the show (at least I WILL be excited as soon as the binding, sleeves, and labels are on my two quilts that will be displayed). As you visit the show make notes of any quilt patterns you may want to make as we can probably order the patterns for you. Also purchase a show book and check out our discount coupon in our ad.

In the meantime there are several things we just got in that can keep you stitching.

This darling little hankie fabric worked up into the sweetest little crib sized quilt.
We have patterns and kits available.

Pink and grey seem to be the top colors in fabric this season. This new modern Serenity line from Moda is ready to be stitched up into home décor, bags, clothes or quilts. I can also see this done up in a nice cool summer top.

SummerFest from Moda is really "talking" to me. The colors in the main pieces are so clean and fresh. The coordinates are so pretty it's hard to pick my favorite ones. Charm packs are also available.

Foxes and Turtles and Frogs...Oh My! We just received this darling line - Babes in the Woods from Timeless Treasures. If you need a quilt for a little baby boy this fabric would be so sweet or it would also make the softest little colored crib sheets.

Last week the UPS man brought us the most luscious box of yarn. All 100% cotton - they are perfect for any of your summer knitting or crocheting projects. Stop in and check them out for yourself.
