FABRICS YARN CLASSES NOTIONS STENCILS BOOKS PATTERNS

June 20, 2016 Update

I hope you all had a chance to attend the Common Threads Regional Quilt Show this past weekend. I even helped with the set up so I was able to get a bit of a preview of all the beautiful quilts. The talent that you all have is amazing! I heard so many good comments from customers about the quality of the vendors and the gorgeous quilts. It takes a lot of hard work and dedication to make the show happen and I want to send out a big thank you to everybody that worked so hard these last few months. We put an ad in the show book, so don't forget to use your 20% off coupon before it expires.

We have a trunk show from the people at Andover Fabrics to showcase the Little House on a Prairie fabric line. There are so many projects from bags to wall hangings and quilts. Stop in and see it this week, as next Monday it goes back in a shipping box to be returned. You still have time to sign up for our very own block of the month using Andover's fabric, Laura's Scrap Basket.

If you're in the mood to work with some cool spring colors check out Salt Water Taffy that Ruth made using these gorgeous batiks.

I did not make it to spring quilt market so I have been watching closely for some new patterns and projects for you. This Braided Beauty table runner that Terri made is so fun and easy to make. It is so quick that you could make it in 2 different color ways and put them together with one on the front and one on the back creating a reversible table runner.
