FABRICS YARN CLASSES NOTIONS STENCILS BOOKS PATTERNS

June 8 2015 Update

I am so excited about this new Naked Sock yarn that just arrived. It's really soft and very different as it has a bit of stretchiness to it. We have several yummy colors that would be perfect for your next project.

4th of July is quickly approaching so Terri put together a display of all our great red, white and blues. We have patriotic fabrics and many coordinates. These would be fabulous in a lap quilt thrown over a bench on your front porch. How about adding a pot of geraniums and a pitcher of lemonade? Now THAT says summer!

I showed you this little table runner last week but now I have it all quilted and bound. I even washed it and it's all crinkled up and very cute. I can't wait to use this for the holidays, or maybe it might have to be a gift. We have kits available so you too can whip one up.

I couldn't believe it when I opened a box the UPS man brought and out fell this adorable Halloween fabric. The little witches on this are so cute and funny. I have several coordinates and also a border stripe that is screaming to be made into an Easy Stripe table runner.
