

September 1, 2015 Update

August has gone by like a whirlwind. We had the shop's 10th birthday. What a great time we had with all the customers who stopped in to say hi and do a little shopping. It was also my birthday which was great fun. The "Row by Rowers" have been stopping in too and its so much fun to talk to them and see where they have traveled from. If you haven't picked up your block, Tuesday September 8th is the last day they will be available. Also we just got in another shipment of the license tag fabric.

During our birthday celebration I demonstrated the Dresden plate ruler. I also found this little tiny one from Suzn Quilts to make this adorable Christmas stocking that Sharon stitched for us.

Carol Perez has been busy working with projects from the Winters Song book from Doug Leko and Holly Taylor's the Winters Song fabric for Moda. She made this table runner and strippy Christmas stocking.

Deb Johnson made this table runner from the same fabric with her 5 Runner Rally pattern.

September 1, 2015 Update

We have several border strip patterns that will work great with the Easy Stripe Tablerunner pattern.

Karen stitched up this beautiful Downton Abbey Christmas quilt using the pattern Snowflakes from Sweetheart Quilt Designs.

I had a lot of fun making these great project baskets using a variety of fabrics. These would make great Christmas gifts. The hardest part of making them was deciding which fabric to use.

Chauntel designed a great hat pattern for our sports fans. Pick up a free pattern with any skein of sport team yarn you purchase.

If you haven't checked out our yarn selection lately it is growing. Maypole, Noro, and Herriott from Juniper Farm are some of the new ones we just got in.

I'm kind of excited about the cooler weather that is coming our way. It's a perfect time to think about starting some fall projects. ~Lisa
