FABRICS YARN CLASSES NOTIONS STENCILS BOOKS PATTERNS

February 11, 2016 Update

I really enjoy the camaraderie that forms with the different stitching groups that meet at our store. We have groups that focus on quilting, knitting, and crochet. Lately I've taken several of the knitting classes that we offer here at the store and it's so relaxing to just sit and chat while doing something that we love. I brainstormed with Chauntel and we decided to open up the classroom to anybody who wants to come and work on any kind of handwork. The dates will be the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month from 1-4 starting in March. Bring in any type of handwork- knitting, crochet, embroidery, appliqué, binding etc. get out of the house and meet some new friends. There will be no charge, but please call ahead just to let us know you're coming.

I have been in love with this Ella Rae yarn ever since we first got it. Tammy crocheted this beautiful shawl called Tangier Wildflowers with it and now I'm REALLY in love with Ella Rae. Check out the beautiful edging that she added.

We have several new classes scheduled, such as beginning lace knitting which uses Chauntel's own pattern- Feathers and Ferns. Check out all our classes at the end of this newsletter or on our website.

Wouldn't this chunky Kaleidoscope yarn work up into a really fun cowl or hat? It feels so soft and squishy!

February 11, 2016 Update

We have wanted to make some type of quick easy guy quilt using these super soft flannels from Marcus Brothers. Terri stitched up this warm quilt using the Ebb Tide pattern from Villa Rosa. This quilt just wants to be snuggled with.

We just got in these incredibly beautiful batiks from Hoffman. They come in the richest colors and would make a beautiful spring or summer quilt.

How about stitching up a fun little Easter wall hanging from the little pattern book Celebrate the Season. It comes with 3 whimsical patterns for projects that would be a great addition to your spring decorating.

We are still 6 weeks from Easter so there is plenty of time to finish up Debbie Johnson's Wondrous Cross pattern.

Don't forget to get your Sampler Block Shuffle Challenge quilts finished up to drop off at the store from March 7-10. We will put them on display starting Saturday March 12th through 19th for voting on by all our customers. You will have a chance at winning a $30, $20, or $10 gift certificate.
